Food selections are required 14 days prior to your event, and a final guest count is required 10 days prior to your event. WEATHER POLICY

Al and Alma's Charter Yachts are equipped to sail rain or shine. In the event of severe weather, cruise events may be held dockside until safe weather permits or until cruise time expires. Al and Alma's assumes no responsibility for circumstances that arise due to weather-related cause. No adjustments will be made to the cancellation policy due to weather.

HANDICAP ACCESSIBILITY

Regretfully, Al and Alma's Charter Yachts are not "Handicap Accessible" as determined by state law. Please consult a cruise representative about restrictions and how our staff can accommodate your guests' needs.

CHILDREN

Children are welcome and encouraged to join any Al and Alma's cruise event as long as they are accompanied by responsible adults. All of our yachts are required by law to have life jackets on board for all guests, children included. Though extremely safe, these life jackets are bulky and uncomfortable to wear. Neither state law nor Al and Alma's require small children to wear life jackets under normal cruising conditions. However, we do encourage you to bring your own more comfortable life jackets for your children to wear throughout the cruise.

OUTSIDE VENDOR FEE

Al and Alma's reserves the right to approve or refuse outside service providers. Events choosing an approved outside vendor will incur a $150 fee per vendor/occurrence.

RIDE AT YOUR OWN RISK

Al and Alma's will not be held liable for any personal injury, damage or loss to any personal property incurred by guests aboard Al and Alma's Charter Yachts. It is agreed that a cruise event is a "Ride at your own risk" attraction.
